

Bob Hughes The effective, experienced choice for Guildford South West

An experienced voice for us all

Bob moved to Guildford to run Sight for Surrey - a county-wide charity providing support and services for people who are Vision Impaired, Deafblind, Hard of Hearing and profoundly Deaf.

He knows first-hand how important it is for Surrey County Council to properly fund high quality personal services in Guildford and across the County.

Sensory services in Surrey are amongst the best in the Country, and we need to achieve the same excellence in all our services in Surrey.

As your County Councillor, Bob will bring community experience as well as knowledge of how Councils and government works. He has worked as a health service lobbyist nationally and has successfully lobbied governments run by all political parties.

Alex Chesterfield, Bob has the experience and insight to bring people together to achieve change in Guildford and he will lobby agencies and government to ensure that funding is made available.

Bob said: "As a former government whip, I've taken on some formidable challenges during my career. Now I am looking for another challenge—to improve our area and opportunities for the people who live here. I hope that Guildford South West residents will vote for a change and for someone who can get their voice heard at the heart of the County Hall."

About Bob

Bob Hughes has lived in the area for three years and brings to Guildford a track record of working on behalf of people to get things done. He served as a Councillor in London and then as a Member of Parliament. During his time in Parliament he was a Minister for Public Services in John Major's government.

Bob has four daughters. His eldest is a health practitioner, another works in charity social housing, his third daughter in film and TV and his youngest is at University.

Bob started his working career in Surrey as an apprentice film maker and subsequently spent 14 years at BBC Television News working around the world to bring coverage of wars, disasters — and sometimes good news — to our screens.

My six-point plan for Guildford South West

- 1 Action on traffic, roads and pavements Working with the Conservative Council, Anne Milton MP has secured £4million to tackle congestion. Bob will help seek further funding to re-route the A3 into a tunnel, and to tackle potholes more quickly – a real concern to residents.
- 2 Tackling anti-social parking We need sensible parking restrictions to help residents to park near their own homes. Bob is supporting local Councillors to achieve the changes residents want and need.
- 3 Improving Public Transport Bob is helping champion the long-needed expansion of Guildford Station and building a new station at Park Barn which will greatly help Onslow residents.
- 4 Protecting our valuable green spaces We all recognise that Guildford needs more housing but it must be the right developments in the right place. Bob will oppose irresponsible over-development.

Bob will oppose irresponsible overdevelopment and protect green space

- 5 Support for the police Our police play a vital role in our communities. Bob has lobbied the Police and Crime Commissioner to make a police presence more visible in the community.
- 6 Supporting our voluntary organisations Many voluntary organisations make a vital contribution to life in Guildford. As your County Councillor, Bob will seek to promote their role in delivering vital services.

BOB HUGHES My six-point plan for Guildford South West

Excellent local services, good value for money and standing up for our local community.
