ALAN YOUNG THE LOCAL CHOICE FOR CRANLEIGH & EWHURST

YOUR PRIORITIES ARE MY PRIORITIES

Alan was first elected to represent Cranleigh and Ewhurst in a by-election in May 2011.

He is committed to preserving the unique rural character of Cranleigh and Ewhurst, whilst ensuring that the villages continue to thrive and to provide housing and employment opportunities for young people.

Alan is a member of the County Council's Environment and Transport Committee and its Health Committee. He has campaigned for smoother roads in Surrey and for greater flexibility in booking hospital appointments to enable the elderly to travel at times that will allow them to use Surrey's free public transport.

Alan is a partner in an investment firm and is married with two young children. In his spare time, he enjoys walking in the Surrey Hills and mentoring budding young entrepreneurs for The Prince's

Alan Young is determined to protect the unique character of our area.

Trust.

Cranleigh's MP, Anne Milton, said of Alan: "Alan has done a fantastic job for the people of Cranleigh and Ewhurst and has achieved a huge amount in just two years.

He has worked extremely hard and has a well deserved reputation for getting things done.

He is a well established part of the community and I can't recommend him highly enough."

KEEPING MY PROMISES TO YOU

When you elected me in 2011, I promised to:

1. Stop proposals to charge for parking on the street in Cranleigh.
2. Improve the roads in Cranleigh and Ewhurst
3. Ensure access to superfast broadband.

So how have I delivered on these promises?:

1. Proposals for on-street

2. parking scrapped.
Horsham Road, Elmbridge Road, Bookhurst Hill, The Street in Ewhurst all resurfaced — and more in the pipeline including Cranleigh High Street, Amlets Lane and Pitch Hill.
3. Access to superfast broadband available for those choosing to switch to this.

Alan Young has delivered on improvements to local roads including Dewlands Lane

ACTION NOT WORDS

Alan Young's achievements

In just two years, I have achieved the following for you:

- Saved Cranleigh's youth club and café from being axed
- Secured funding to rebuild Cranleigh's primary and infant schools
- Rejuvenated Cranleigh's High Street with new lights
- Saved Cranleigh Fire Station from closure
- Stopped the reduction of bus services on routes 53 and 63 and introduced new Sunday bus service to Ewhurst
- Resurfaced dangerous paths linking Summerlands and Glebelands estates
- Secured funding for cycle path between Cranleigh and Ewhurst
- Supported Cranleigh Cricket Club's new pitch

Alan Young has delivered on his promises as a local Councillor

Alan is FROM the community, FOR the community.

BRINGING THE OLYMPICS TO SURREY

Conservative-led Surrey County Council worked to get the most out of the Olympics. Local businesses benefited from £800 million of contracts.
